Welcome to Belleville Downtown DocFest's 9th Annual Film Festival

Holly Dewar, Chair

Belleville Downtown DocFest Organizing Committee

WE ARE THRILLED TO PRESENT Belleville Downtown DocFest International Documentary Film Festival March 6-8th, 2020! We welcome our audience to an outstanding lineup of award-winning documentaries and our signature Gala event. It all happens in five landmark locations in Belleville's historic downtown.

The Opening Gala on Friday, March 6th at the historic Empire Theatre is an exciting evening of film and music. We are honoured to have Filmmaker Daniel Roher attend the screening of his acclaimed music documentary, Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band. Roher made history in 2019 when his film became the first Canadian documentary to open the Toronto International Film Festival. Roher will also participate in our Filmmakers Panel along with two other outstanding Canadian Filmmakers, Maureen Judge and Alan Zweig on Sunday, March 8th 10:30a.m. at the Belleville Club.

The Opening Gala film is followed by a live musical performance by the fabulous alt-country band LeBarons, an energetic 7-piece band who are the perfect act to follow the Gala film. The DocFest Gala is generously sponsored by Pretsell Davies Thompson Benton LLP Lawyers who have been our Gala sponsor since year one.

The Festival's featured Art Show, "I'm the Role Model" explores the theme of young people as a force for change. It presents the work of young people from across the Quinte Region. The Show kicks off DocFest Week with an opening on Monday, March 2nd from 5-8p.m. at the CORE Arts & Culture Centre's Gallery. Be sure to catch this year's show curated by Peter Paylor and Lisa Morris. (runs through Sat. Mar. 7th)

DocFest's 'Saturday Night at The Empire' event features HotDocs Audience Award nominee, There Are No Fakes. We're thrilled that Kevin Hearn of the Barenaked Ladies is attending the screening and will discuss the film following. In 2005, Hearn bought a painting attributed to Ojibwe artist Norval Morrisseau that was later pronounced a fake by professional curators. This new documentary by Jamie Kastner, leads us into the shocking world of an art forgery ring in northern Canada. Thanks to BMO Nesbitt Burns for sponsoring the film and Q&A event on Saturday, March 7th.

Our 'Feature Sunday' includes two special documentaries shown on The Empire's big screen. We start with Ask Dr. Ruth, a chronicle of the renowned life of Dr. Ruth Westheimer, a Holocaust survivor who became America's most famous sex therapist. Followed by the riveting Festival Finale Film, Honeyland the winner of several prestigious festival prizes, including three from Sundance 2019. This amazing doc about female Macedonian beekeeper, Hatidze Muratova is from a multiple award-winning team and it was three years in the making. Our sincere thanks to our Finale Film sponsor, City of Belleville.

A unique part of DocFest is the Loyalist College Film Television Production short film competition. Twelve four-minute films produced by students are screened before an audience in Loyalist's Alumni Hall (Wed. Mar. 4, 6-8:30pm.) The top four student films selected by a panel of established filmmakers are shown during the Film Festival.

The Belleville Public Library and the CORE Arts & Culture Centre have provided significant support and encouragement to DocFest since our first year in 2012. We greatly value our many partners and their support of the creative arts in our community. We are grateful for the generous support and essential funding from the Ontario Arts Council and the City of Belleville and from all of our film sponsors.

A heart-felt thanks to the many volunteers who give generously of their time during the Festival. DocFest couldn't run without their help. We are also deeply grateful to our audience for embracing and supporting the Film Festival.

Check out our website at downtowndocfest.ca and subscribe to our eNewsletter for all the latest news. Please like and share DocFest on social media.

On behalf of my colleagues on Council I am pleased to have this opportunity to welcome you to the City of Belleville and to the 9th Annual Downtown DocFest Event taking place March 6th to March 8th, 2020.

DocFest offers a fantastic opportunity for community participation for audience members, local filmmakers, not-for-profit agencies and organizations, volunteers and students

DocFest has quickly become a staple event in our community, growing each and every year, engaging audiences through the art of film while bringing awareness to important social, cultural, economic and environmental issues. I would like to express our gratitude to the organizing committee of this event for their dedication and for fostering and showcasing filmmaking in our region. We encourage those of all ages to participate in this wonderful weekend.

I look forward to seeing you at the festival!

Kind Regards,

Mitch Panciuk
Mayor

Welcome to the 2020 Belleville Downtown DocFest!

If you're an avid film-fan, you already know that fine documentaries remove viewers from the familiar and set them into spaces and situations that require further thought and careful reflection.

Documentaries that capture the intersection of themes and narratives are, in fact, works of incredible art that can help to shape the way we see, and respond to, the world we inhabit.

Here, at the Belleville Downtown DocFest, we have an incredible chance to experience this; and the more documentaries we view the better our chances become of learning something new.

Enjoy the show!

Mr. Neil R. Ellis
M.P. Bay of Quinte

From the comfortable seats of these five venues, we have a window to the broader world through the eyes of the talented filmmakers who submit their creative work to Belleville's Downtown DocFest.

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I encourage you to settle in and to learn about the important issues unfolding on screen over these three days. With about 50 international documentaries, there is a wealth of information to glean. Before or after the films roll, I also encourage you to visit our restaurants and shops and see all that the Quinte region has to offer.

In closing, I would like to congratulate the festival organizing committee and its partners and supporters, for their continuing efforts to deliver this high-quality event for a ninth year. Like the filmmakers they support, they commit a great number of hours to produce the product you see. The fruits of their labour make this feature possible.

Welcome to Downtown DocFest 2020!

The Belleville Downtown DocFest International Documentary Film Festival is an important part of the cultural fabric of our community. Belleville Public Library is proud to have been a supporter, sponsor and screening venue for DocFest since its inaugural year. DocFest continues to thrive and grow every year thanks to the hard-working volunteers who make DocFest happen and to the many local community partners generously supporting the Festival. Holly Dewar, Manager of Public Service for Belleville Public Library, is currently the volunteer Chair of the DocFest Organizing Committee and has been working tirelessly with the rest of the Committee volunteers to ensure that the 2020 DocFest will be the best it can be. I would like to thank Holly and the other volunteers on the Organizing Committee for their hard work and dedication to making DocFest a success. Belleville Public Library, thanks to the support we receive from the City of Belleville, is pleased to participate each year in DocFest by providing a free venue for the festival and for filmmaker workshops and by providing staff support to the Organizing Committee. I look forward to this year's DocFest Film Festival and would like to congratulate all of the volunteers and participating film-makers on their achievements.

Friday Night Opening Gala & Green Carpet

Friday, March 6th
The Empire Theatre

6:45 Green Carpet Interviews

7:30 Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band

Canada, 2019 (100min)

A confessional, cautionary, and humorous tale of Robertson's young life and the creation of one of the most enduring groups in the history of popular music, The Band. The film is a moving story of Robertson's personal journey, overcoming adversity and finding camaraderie alongside the four other men who would become his brothers in music. Produced by Martin Scorsese and Ron Howard, interviews include Bob Dylan and Eric Clapton among others.

"It's no surprise to anyone who's met him, or even listened thoughtfully to some of the greatest rock songs ever written, that Robertson would be such an articulate and ingratiating tour guide."

- Chris Willman, Variety

Director, Daniel Roher will attend the Gala and introduce his film.

9:30 LeBarons

After the Gala screening there will be a performance from musical guest LeBarons. The Rocking Magpie called their milestone album, Summer of Death epic, brooding and emotional Americana from Canada. Their alt country sound with the amazing vocals and songwriting of Chris MacDonald will leave you wanting more. This 7 piece band is destined to become a major player in the music scene.

Be sure to join DocFest's resident celebrity interviewer, Dug Stevenson, on the Green Carpet as he interviews local filmmakers, dignitaries and other VIPs as they file in to the Opening Gala.

Saturday Night at The Empire

Saturday, March 7th
The Empire Theatre

8:00 There Are No Fakes
Canada, 2019 (78min)

In 2005, Kevin Hearn of the rock band The Barenaked Ladies paid $20,000 for “Spirit Energy of Mother Earth” — a painting by First Nations artist Norval Morrisseau. Years later, when he loaned it to the Art Gallery of Ontario for a show, the curators told him that it was a fake. His decision to sue his art dealer (who insisted “there are no fakes”) sparks an investigation that leads from Toronto to Thunder Bay, into the tragic and brutal world of an art forgery ring in Canada’s north.

Kevin Hearn will be in attendance at the screening.

“It’s a complicated but fascinating story that touches on art forgery, appropriation of voice, cultural genocide, and even murder.”

Belleville Downtown Docfest Filmmaker Panel Discussion

Sunday, March 8th,
10:30am
The Belleville Club
210 Pinnacle Street

OUR ANNUAL FILMMAKERS PANEL features three award-winning filmmakers providing an insider's look into the art, craft, and process of documentary filmmaking. Proudly sponsored by the Belleville Downtown District.

Daniel Roher's Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band

Daniel Roher

Daniel Roher is the director of Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band (2019), the first Canadian documentary to open the Toronto International Film Festival. His latest movie was produced by long-time Robertson collaborator and Oscar winner Martin Scorsese.

Roher's previous films include the shorts Conversations with a Dead Prime Minister, Dilveen, Survivor's Rowe, and the feature Ghosts of our Forest which premiered at the 2017 Hot Docs Film Festival. DocFest is thrilled to have the director of our 2020 Gala film attend the Festival and participate in our Filmmakers Panel!

Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band screens Friday, March 6, The Empire Theatre at 7:30p.m.

Daniel Roher, Director

Maureen Judge's 17 And Life Doesn't Wait

Alan Zweig's Coppers

Alan Zweig

Zweig is a director and writer, known for films such as Vinyl (2000), Hard Name (2009) which received the Genie Award for best documentary, and Hurt (2015) winner of the Platform Prize at Toronto International Film Festival and best feature documentary Canadian Screen Award. DocFest was honoured to present Zweig's film There Is a House Here and to have him attend our Festival in 2018.

Zweig's most recent documentary Coppers, nominated for Best Canadian Feature Film in 2019, is a hard-hitting film about ex-cops that presents an honest, empathetic, and occasionally harrowing look at a uniquely difficult profession.

Coppers

screens Saturday, March 7, CORE Screen 1 at 3:45p.m.

Alan Zweig, Director

Maureen Judge

An award-winning Canadian filmmaker and television producer, Judge has directed and produced documentary films, television series, and dramatic shorts. Her films explore themes of love, betrayal, and acceptance in the modern family setting.

Her award-winning documentaries include: And We Knew How To Dance: Women and World War I, produced by the National Film Board of Canada, In My Parents' Basement and Living Dolls (2013).

Judge's latest documentary 17 And Life Doesn't Wait (2019) gives us a glimpse into what it means to be a girl today. It's a remarkably candid view of life as seen through the eyes of three teenage girls in their final year of high school.

17 And Life Doesn't Wait

screens Saturday, March 7, CORE Screen 1 at 2:00 p.m.

Maureen Judge, Director

Feature Sunday at The Empire

Sunday, March 8th
The Empire Theatre

1:00 Ask Dr. Ruth
USA, 2019, (100min)

A chronicle of the incredible life of Dr. Ruth Westheimer, a Holocaust survivor who became America's most famous sex therapist. With her diminutive frame, thick German accent, and uninhibited approach to sex therapy and education, Dr. Ruth has transformed the conversation around sexuality since the early 1980s. As she approaches her 90th birthday, and shows no signs of slowing down, Dr. Ruth revisits her painful past and unlikely path to a career at the forefront of the sexual revolution.

(Critics' Choice winner; Sundance, HotDocs selection)

"Those looking for a feel-good movie, about a famous personality living a remarkable life in the service of helping others, don't need to look further"

- Andrew Parker, The Gate

3:30 Honeyland
Macedonia, 2019, (90min)

Note: Subtitles

(The Local Film Awards will be presented before the screening)

Beautifully filmed over three years in an isolated mountain area in Macedonia, a middle-aged beekeeper lives with her ailing mother, in a home without electricity or running water. The unexpected arrival of a neighbouring family disturbs her tranquil existence. Approaching the newcomers with an open heart, she willingly shares her expertise, but tensions rise. It's a portrait of one woman's resilience, a glimpse of a fast disappearing way of life, and a microcosm for our modern world.

"A sensitivity to both petty human concerns and striking natural beauty is what makes Honeyland a particularly enthralling documentary."

- David Sims, The Atlantic

ompson Benton LLP, Lawyers are thrilled to again sponsor vn DocFest Opening Gala, an exciting night of film and live he success of the past Opening Galas, we look forward to performance. This is a wonderful world class event for all of

DocFest 2020 Highlights

TIME TO GET OFF THE COUCH, turn off the TV and join the crowds flocking to the 9th annual Belleville Downtown DocFest International Documentary Film Festival!

Why come to a film festival? Because “you feel more” says TIFF artistic director Cameron Bailey, “when you share with others in a movie theatre”. Those collective gasps, moans, chuckles - strangers in the dark who feel as you do . . . a good reason to ask, “What did you think of that film?”

The wide range of topics covered by this year’s documentaries is comparable to the wide range of emotions you will feel while watching them. You will be inspired by films such as Beyond Moving, Ask Dr. Ruth, Maiden, Radical Acts of Love, incensed by Push, Corporate Coup d’Etat, We Will Stand Up, The Great Hack and feel anticipation as you watch Pipe Dreams, 2040 and Foster. Whatever the feeling - you will not be unmoved!

Having the filmmaker introduce his or her film, giving audiences a look behind the camera, adds hugely to the enjoyment of these documentaries. This speaker icon  indicates that a special guest will be at a screening. Be sure to attend as many of these Festival Highlights as you can.

- 17 and Life Doesn’t Wait by Maureen Judge award-winning (Canadian Screen Award: Best Documentary Program, Genie Award: Best Short Documentary) filmmaker and television producer
- Coppers the most recent film by Alan Zweig, director, writer, actor, with over 15 documentaries to his credit and a very funny guy, in a Jewish sort of way (director of When Jews Were Funny)!
- Local filmmakers will be introducing their documentaries. Most of the local screenings take place on Saturday March 7th, at the CORE - Screen 1, beginning at 9:30am.
- Following the screening of Rat Park, the Harm Reduction Task Force will be available to answer questions.
- If you are an animal lover, you will love the film Buddy. Stay and find out about the very popular children’s program offered at the library, called Paws for Reading
- Sponsoring the film 2040, The City of Belleville’s Green Task Force will be there to engage the audience in a discussion about future “Green” directions
- Open to everyone, no pass required, the Filmmakers Panel moderated by Holly Dewar, with acclaimed Canadian filmmakers, Maureen Judge (17 and Life Doesn’t Wait), Alan Zweig (Coppers) and Daniel Roher (Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson and The Band), on Sunday March 8th at 10:30am at the Belleville Club.

Gift

Canada, 2018 | 90 min

Director: Robin McKenna

Tags: Social, Altruism

Our time and energy is traded for money; our money is traded for goods and services. But, there is an alternative: the gift economy. Based on the book by Lewis Hyde, this meditative visual essay shows the value and importance of a gift. It's also about the impact of gift-giving; a sharp look at how we may be losing our ability to be surprised, gracious, and appreciative.

I think it's inevitable that people will come to find the documentary a more compelling and more important kind of film than fiction. Just as in literature, as the taste has moved from fiction to nonfiction, I think it's going to happen in film as well. In a way you're on a serendipitous journey, a journey which is much more akin to the life experience. When you see somebody on the screen in a documentary, you're really engaged with a person going through real life experiences. So for that period of time, as you watch the film, you are, in effect, in the shoes of another individual. What a privilege to have that experience.

2) CHECK OUT THE LEAD UP. There are a couple of DocFest events leading up to the festival. More information on our website (downtowndocfest.ca) under the Events tab and in the program. Monday March 2 from 5-8 pm opening reception for the student art show, I'm the Role Model. Thursday March 5 at 6 pm at the Loyalist College Alumni Hall, a competitive event that selects the best student short documentaries. Fun and informative!

3) BE AN EARLY BIRD TO THE GALA. The first event of the weekend will start with a bang on Friday, so be sure to show up with time to spare. Don't miss the Green Carpet interviews at The Empire Theatre, where attending filmmakers will give their unique take on their work.

4) CHECK THE FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS PAGE FOR ATTENDING FILMMAKERS AND SPECIAL GUESTS. Over the course of the weekend, you'll find many local and regional filmmakers and invited guests attending to introduce films, answer questions or lead discussions. This speaker icon indicates that a special guest will be at a screening.

5) KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR DOCFEAST SPECIALS. Friday and Saturday evening is an opportunity for festival-goers to enjoy full-course meals or substantial snacks at many of the city's downtown eateries. Make reservations at your favourite restaurant, so you won't be disappointed. Films at The Empire Theatre begin Friday at 7:30 pm and Saturday at 8 pm leaving lots of time to enjoy your meal.

6) SNUGGLE UP. There's no need to be afraid of your neighbours at any DocFest venue, so take a seat right next to someone and strike up a conversation! Our venues are small, so ensuring that there are no empty seats in the middle of rows allows for more ticket holders to experience the films.

7) EXIT AFTER EACH FILM. We know it's a pain, but we ask each viewer to leave the room after every screening so that there's equal opportunity for all Festival Pass holders to get a seat. You wouldn't want a seat hog to prevent you from a fair chance at a seat, so please respect the exit protocol.

8) TWEET IT UP! We're on social media all week long, so tweet us your favourite flicks, tell us what you think and talk up the festival! You could even find yourself in conversation with a filmmaker via Twitter, so let that blue bird loose! (you can find us @downtowndocfest)

9) VOLUNTEER NEXT YEAR! You can get one of those awesome green shirts for volunteering your time, plus some rush tickets to watch screenings when you're not on duty. It's a pretty sweet deal!

10) ASK QUESTIONS ABOUT WHAT YOU'RE SEEING. Remember that a documentary is usually one filmmaker's lens on a specific topic or issue. While they research different sides of the argument, what they present represents how they see the topic. If you're interested in the subject, look up other sources of information for different perspectives.

Loyalist FTVP Screening

Wednesday, March 4th, 6-9pm
Loyalist College in Alumni Hall
FREE ADMISSION
Open to everyone!

WHEN ORGANIZATIONS IN A SMALL TOWN work side by side for the same goals, magic happens. That was the plan when, seven years ago, Belleville Downtown DocFest approached Loyalist College's FTVP program for the first time.

The aim was simple: to create an on-campus event that tied together our local documentary film festival with our community college's film and media faculties. Under the guidance of the FTVP faculty, teams of four FTVP students produce four 4 to 5 minute documentaries on topics of local interest. A panel of local professional filmmakers provides on-the-spot feedback and scoring. Behind the scenes, Public Relations (PURE) students handle the event logistics from start to finish—from promotion to the final dimming of the lights.

The first year saw an audience of 50 watch 12 submissions. By year six, over 150 attended, filling Alumni Hall to the seams. Under the mentorship of staff, the fledgling filmmakers work day and night to finish their short documentary submissions in time for the public screening.

The panel's feedback offers honest critique and insight into techniques from storytelling to production. The top four stories are selected and screened for the general public as part of DocFest's 'Local Spotlight.'

Loyalist FTVP Student Screening is a free event and everyone is welcome to attend.

I'm the Role Model: A DocFest Art Show

Monday, March 2nd, 5-8pm

Saturday, March 7th

The CORE Gallery

OVER THE PAST FEW YEARS, there has probably been no greater force for change, and certainly no greater hope for change, than our young people. Both globally and locally, from the students of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School fighting gun violence to Greta Thunberg and the members of the Student Climate Strike fighting global warming to students from the Quinte Region fighting against cutbacks to education, young people are no longer looking for role models – they are the role models.

That's the message of the global youth movement; it's also the message of this year's DocFest art show. I'm the Role Model features the work of young people from across the Quinte Region. It's an expression of who they are and what they are thinking, whether it be social justice or the environment or gender identity and equality or simply what it's like to be young in today's world.

I'm the Role Model opens on Monday, March 2 at the Gallery on the second floor of the CORE Arts & Culture at 223 Pinnacle Street and runs through March 7. Join us for the OPENING RECEPTION on March 2 from 5 to 8 pm. Everyone is welcome. Refreshments will be served.

QUINTE FILM ALTERNATIVE

Spotlight on Local Filmmakers

LOCAL FILMS TELL THE LOCAL STORIES - the history, culture and people who live in the community and we have an abundance of talented filmmakers, we would like you to meet. Thank you to the Quinte Film Alternative (QFA) for sponsoring these homegrown documentaries. Over 24 years, QFA has nurtured a critical, curious and adventurous audience. Thanks QFA, for leading the way in bringing great film to our region. The Quinte Film Alternative awards for Best Local Feature and Best Local Short, will be announced at our final film on Sunday, March 8th at 3:30 at The Empire Theatre.

We asked several of our local documentarians, screening at this years' Festival, to answer a few questions . . . . One Tweet that summarizes your film . . . One person who was instrumental to your film getting made . . . One story about the making of this film . . . One parting word you would like to share . . .

Sean Scally

Lumberbaron: The Gilmour years

Sat. 9:30 CORE Screen 1

Tweet that summarizes your film: Trenton would not be Trenton without the Gilmour influence @history #industrialization

Person who was instrumental to your film getting made: Don Galna who has studied the Gilmour story his entire life.

Story about the making of this film: If you have not been to Dorset Ontario do yourself a favour and visit

NEW technology you can't live without: My DJI drone

OLD technology you can't live without: My hand-written notebook which has more info than my phone

Parting word: Make local history cool again

Monika Kraska

Still Here

Sat. 11:30 CORE SCREEN 1

Tweet: Still Here is a film that follows the stories of three women and their experiences obtaining Indian Status.

Person: Nicole Clark, who wrote and co-produced the film. The story is inspired by her mother, Lynn, one of the women featured in the documentary. The film could not have been made without her.

Story: This film was created as part of the Advanced Television and Film program at Sheridan College, and for many of us, it was our first time working in documentary. Being thrust into this new territory was initially nerve-racking, especially when taking into account the gravity of the topic, but proved to be immeasurably valuable for the experience we gained in collaboration and story-telling.

Parting word: "A film is - or should be - more like music than like fiction. It should be a progression of moods and feelings. The theme, what's behind the emotion, the meaning, all that comes later." - Stanley Kubrick

Tess Girard

A Place to Call Home

Sat. 9:30 CORE Screen 1

Tweet: A Place to Call Home tells the heartfelt stories of students @LoyolaAdultEd, and their journeys to becoming new Canadians. @Bay_Of_Quinte

Person: This film wouldn't have been possible without the foresight of Jen Achilles and Dug Stevenson at the Bay of Quinte Tourism Regional Marketing Board who met with Loyola school and saw how incredible the students are and that their stories needed to be heard. But most importantly, the new Canadians who opened their hearts to us and told us their stories.

Story: Each person we worked with on this film approached it with open arms. They welcomed us into their classrooms, lives, and even homes, shared their triumphs and struggles, and were beyond warm. Nasr served me falafel, sat me down in a chair, expecting a full review and was so proud. Nabilla invited me into her home and introduced me to her kids and their school. Nina brought me to her house and made me traditional Columbian food. My heart is not big enough for all they have to give to this world. They are part of my community and I am so moved by how they've changed my experience within it.

Parting word: The Bay of Quinte region is a diverse community with many new Canadians who help enrich the local culture and make it a warm and lively place. The more we open our arms to diversity, the more we grow and can share this beautiful place with many others.

JP Lemieux

Film Street: The Trenton Studio

Sat. 11:30, CORE Screen 1

Tweet: Established in 1917, the Trenton Film Studio struggled to survive before being shut down in 1934, taking the dream of a Canadian film industry with it for decades. As Hollywood North now rakes in billions yearly, here's an affectionate look back at what might have been 100 years ago...

Person: Richard Hughes of the Historical Society was very important in helping us get information about the Studio. So was Peggy Dymond Leavey who we interviewed and used her book as a reference.

Story: The Studio building itself is still around and being used in Trenton. The family who owns it was nice enough to let us go through the building and it's something to see.

Gary Magwood

Hello Darkness

Fri. 3:45 CORE Screen 1

& Sat. 3:45 Bridge St United Church

Tweet: A brief look at how we have lost sight of our night skies in urban areas

Person: Sean Scally

Story: Finding the astro-physicist Dr. Brian McGaffney living in Stirling

NEW technology: The internet

OLD technology: Classic and vintage cars

Parting word: Dream

Angela Bell

Shear Love

Sat. 11:30 CORE Screen 1

Tweet: Shear Love is the story of Melissa Payton-VanNorman and her team who come together to lift up a community one #haircut at a time. #community.

Person: Melissa Payton-Van Norman is the force behind the StreetStylez event and without her amazing strength and determination to make this event have a big impact on the community, I wouldn't have had this story to tell.

Story: Until I started making this film, I had no idea of the trials and tribulations that Melissa goes through to make this event a success twice a year. When I was filming the event last August, she was confronted by an angry mother and was visibly upset afterward. I was inspired by the way that she turned off those feelings and went right back to filling the room with love and compassion.

Parting Word: I hope this film will inspire people to contribute their unique skills to use in the community. When you share your skills with love and compassion, you can really make a difference in someone's life - even if it's just for a brief moment.
